Qrun Club Membership Benefits for Recreational Running Clubs

Introduction:

Joining Qrun as a recreational running club provides a range of benefits for both the club and its members. These benefits ensure that all participants, committee members, and club owners are properly supported, covered, and have access to various resources that enhance their running experience.

Affiliation Fee

To become an official Qrun-affiliated club, an annual $300 affiliation fee is required. This fee grants your club the following:

- Inclusion in Qrun's network of running clubs
- Eligibility for insurance coverage (details below)
- Marketing and promotional support via Qrun's platforms
- Access to event coordination and participation in Qrun-sanctioned events

Insurance Coverage for Members & Committee/Owners

Qrun's association with the Athletics Australia Insurance Program provides essential insurance coverage for all affiliated running clubs. This insurance is available to both members and the club's committee/operator.

The comprehensive coverage includes:

- Public Liability Insurance – Protection against claims of injury or damage caused during club activities, events, or competitions.
- Personal Accident Insurance – Covers injuries sustained by club members during sanctioned activities.
- Management Liability Insurance – Protections for clubs and its committee members as a result of any alleged wrongful act whilst undertaking their roles in an official capacity.

For more information on the insurance details, visit the Athletics-GowGates Insurance page.

Club Benefits

By joining Qrun, your club will have access to the following benefits:

- Insurance Coverage: As noted, comprehensive insurance ensures the safety of your members and leaders.
- Club Resources: Access to Qrun's full suite of club tools, training resources, and event guidelines.
- Networking Opportunities: Connect with other clubs and members through Qrun's network.
- Discounts on Events: Special pricing for affiliated clubs to participate in Qrun events and races (only applies to participating events).

- Coaching and Training Support: Access to expert advice and resources on training programs and running techniques.

Additional Benefits

- Exclusive Promotions: Affiliated clubs may receive exclusive access to promotions, products, or services designed specifically for runners.
- Club Recognition: Have your club listed on Qrun's official website and benefit from promotional support.
- Support for Event Planning: Qrun can provide assistance in organizing club events, including race-day logistics, volunteer coordination, and more.
- Individual Injury Cover - when members pay their $12 Qrun annual membership (plus your club fee if applicable) they will have access to personal accident cover.

Application Process

To apply for Qrun club membership and access the benefits listed above, please visit our Membership Application Page for further details. Complete the form, submit the $300 affiliation fee, and gain access to all Qrun's resources.

Conclusion

Joining Qrun as an affiliated recreational running club ensures your club is part of a larger running community, with a wealth of support, insurance coverage, and exclusive benefits. We look forward to welcoming your club into the Qrun network!
